

6516208349.txt

I am an over-the-road, long distance truck driver and the XM Radio service has been invaluable to my work. The ability to listen to traffic and weather conditions in cities along my route is very important to the efficiency of my operation. To limit the capability of XM Radio to carry this programming would be a great disservice to the public.